

Bob Malinowski Senior Director, Technical Accounting Consulting RSM US LLP, focuses on assisting clients implement new accounting standards as well as navigate the accounting and financial reporting consequences of complex financial structures employed in mergers, acquisitions, divestitures and financing transactions. As the technical lease accounting leader for RSM's Technical Accounting Consulting team, Bob is recognized as a subject matter specialist with regards to lease accounting. Bob has specialized in lease accounting issues and transactions throughout his career and assisting hundreds of companies and organizations with complex lease accounting matters under GASB, FASB, and IFRS requirements.

Prior to joining RSM, Bob was an executive director with the accounting advisory group at a Big Four firm where he served as a leader for lease accounting matters.